

TEXAS JUVENILE JUSTICE DEPARTMENT

Update on COVID-19 at TJJD Facilities

December 23, 2020

AUSTIN—The Texas Juvenile Justice Department provided the following updates today related to COVID-19:

- 2 youth at the Giddings State School tested positive for COVID-19 last night.
- 1 Youth Development Coach at the Gainesville State School tested positive for COVID-19 this morning
- 1 staff member at the Ron Jackson State Juvenile Correctional Complex, in Brownwood, tested positive for COVID-19 this morning.

Since the start of the pandemic, 287 staff members at the agency's secure facilities have tested positive for COVID-19:

Evins Regional Juvenile Center: 76
Gainesville State School: 24
Giddings State School: 50
McLennan County State Juvenile Correctional Facility: 71
Ron Jackson State Juvenile Correctional Complex: 66

Since the start of the pandemic, 276 youth at the agency's secure facilities have tested positive for COVID-19:

Evins Regional Juvenile Center: 45
Gainesville State School: 13
Giddings State School: 91
McLennan County State Juvenile Correctional Facility: 97
Ron Jackson State Juvenile Correctional Complex: 30

For more information about the agency's response to COVID-19, please visit the TJJD website.

For additional information, contact Brian Sweany at brian.sweany@tjtd.texas.gov or 512-490-7028.