Update on COVID-19 at TJJD Facilities

September 29, 2021

AUSTIN—The Texas Juvenile Justice Department provided the following updates today related to COVID-19:

- One contract employee who works as a member of the medical staff at Ron Jackson State Juvenile Correctional Complex, in Brownwood, tested positive for COVID-19 this afternoon.
- TJJD currently has 12 active cases across its facilities (11 staff and 1 youth).

For more information about the agency's response to COVID-19, including cumulative case counts and timelines, please visit the TJJD website.
