

TEXAS JUVENILE JUSTICE DEPARTMENT

Rule Review Plan and Timeline

TJJD staff will submit to the Texas Register Notices of Proposed Rule Reviews in accordance with the timeline promulgated below.

During the month identified to begin review in the table below, TJJD staff will post a Notice of Proposed Rule Review in the Texas Register, initiating a 30-day public comment period limited to the scope of whether the reasons for initially adopting or readopting the rules continue to exist. TJJD staff will prepare summaries and initial recommendations regarding whether the reasons for initially adopting the rules continue to exist and whether the rule should be considered for any future amendments through a new rulemaking procedure. The Board will readopt those rules that it finds should continue to exist. Rules identified as needing future amendments or as appropriate for repeal will be addressed in a new rulemaking action.

All new rules adopted after the approval of this plan will be assigned a Chapter and Title and will be added to the next four-year cycle to be reviewed no later than four years after the effective date.
