TJJD Staff Member Dies From Complications Related to COVID-19

Sean Wilson, a respected Youth Development Coach at the Giddings State School, had worked for the agency since 2014

June 30, 2020

AUSTIN—Camille Cain, the Executive Director of the Texas Juvenile Justice Department, issued this statement on the death of Sean Wilson. Mr. Wilson, who had been diagnosed with COVID-19 on June 22, passed away at his home late on the night of June 28:

“The entire TJJD family is grieving over the loss of Sean Wilson, a dedicated staff member at the Giddings State School who cared deeply for the youth he worked with. Sean had worked for the State of Texas for fourteen years and for TJJD since 2014. He leaves behind a loving wife and an eight-year-old son. We are devastated by their loss and mourn with them during this time.”
