

TEXAS JUVENILE JUSTICE DEPARTMENT

Update on COVID-19 at TJJD Facilities

January 11, 2022

AUSTIN—The Texas Juvenile Justice Department provided the following updates today related to COVID-19:

- Fourteen youth at the McLennan County State Juvenile Correctional Facility, in Mart, tested positive for COVID-19 last night.
- One youth at a halfway house tested positive for COVID-19 this morning.
- Four employees at the Gainesville State School have tested positive for COVID-19 in the past 24 hours.
- Two employees at the Evins Regional Juvenile Center, in Edinburg, have tested positive for COVID-19 in the past 24 hours.
- Two employees at the Ron Jackson State Juvenile Correctional Complex, in Brownwood, tested positive for COVID-19 today.
- Two employees at the Giddings State School tested positive for COVID-19 today.
- One employee at the McLennan County State Juvenile Correctional Facility tested positive for COVID-19 today.
- At this time, TJJD has 150 active cases across its facilities (103 staff and 47 youth).

For more information about the agency's response to COVID-19, including cumulative case counts and timelines, please visit the TJJD website.

For additional information, contact Brian Sweany at brian.sweany@tjjd.texas.gov.