

TEXAS JUVENILE JUSTICE DEPARTMENT

Update on COVID-19 at TJJD Facilities

January 14, 2022

AUSTIN—The Texas Juvenile Justice Department provided the following updates today related to COVID-19:

- Three youth at the Ron Jackson State Juvenile Correctional Complex, in Brownwood, tested positive for COVID-19 last night.
- One youth at the Giddings State School tested positive for COVID-19 last night.
- One youth at the McLennan County State Juvenile Correctional Facility, in Mart, tested positive for COVID-19 this morning.
- Two youth at the Evins Regional Juvenile Center, in Edinburg, tested positive for COVID-19 this morning.
- One staff member at the Evins Regional Juvenile Center tested positive for COVID-19 last night.
- One Youth Development Coach at a halfway house tested positive for COVID-19 last night.
- Six employees at the Ron Jackson State Juvenile Correctional Complex have tested positive for COVID-19 in the past 24 hours.
- Four employees at the McLennan County State Juvenile Correctional Facility have tested positive for COVID-19 in the past 24 hours.
- At this time, TJJD has 163 active cases across its facilities (95 staff and 68 youth).

For more information about the agency's response to COVID-19, including cumulative case counts and timelines, please visit the TJJD website.

For additional information, contact Brian Sweany at brian.sweany@tjjd.texas.gov.