Update on COVID-19 at TJJD Facilities

December 3, 2021

AUSTIN—The Texas Juvenile Justice Department provided the following updates today related to COVID-19:

- One teacher at the Evins Regional Juvenile Center, in Edinburg, tested positive for COVID-19 yesterday. This is the only active COVID case across TJJD's facilities.

For more information about the agency's response to COVID-19, including cumulative case counts and timelines, please visit the TJJD website.
