

TEXAS JUVENILE JUSTICE DEPARTMENT

Update on COVID-19 at TJJD Facilities

3 new youth cases were reported over the weekend; no new staff cases have been reported in the past 72 hours

July 27, 2020

AUSTIN—The Texas Juvenile Justice Department provided the following updates today related to COVID-19:

- 2 youth at the Ron Jackson State Juvenile Correctional Complex, in Brownwood, tested positive for COVID-19 on Sunday morning.
- 1 youth at the Giddings State School tested positive for COVID-19 on Sunday afternoon.
- As of today, the agency has administered 1,216 tests to youth for COVID-19.

Since the start of the pandemic, 158 staff members at the agency's secure facilities have tested positive for COVID-19:

Evins Regional Juvenile Center: 53
Gainesville State School: 9
Giddings State School: 38
McLennan County State Juvenile Correctional Facility: 20
Ron Jackson State Juvenile Correctional Complex: 38

Since the start of the pandemic, 172 youth at the agency's secure facilities have tested positive for COVID-19:

Evins Regional Juvenile Center: 25
Gainesville State School: 13
Giddings State School: 77
McLennan County State Juvenile Correctional Facility: 41
Ron Jackson State Juvenile Correctional Complex: 16

For more information about the agency's response to COVID-19, please visit the TJJD website.

For additional information, contact Brian Sweany at brian.sweany@tjjd.texas.gov or 512-490-7028.