RULE

- (a) This rule establishes the role of the Texas Juvenile Justice Department (TJJD) in providing family planning education and services to youth in TJJD-operated residential placements.
  - (b) Family planning education is available to youth in TJJD-operated residential placements by referral to appropriate community agencies.
  - (c) If requested by a youth, family planning services, including contraception, will be made available by referring him/her to appropriate community agencies when the youth is released from TJJD residential placement.
  - (d) TJJD staff act as a liaison with community organizations that provide comprehensive family planning services for TJJD youth.
  - (e) Medical providers paid directly or indirectly by TJJD do not provide contraceptives to TJJD youth as a family planning service.
