

Texas Juvenile Justice Department's Annual Data Coordinators' Conference
September 12-13, 2016
Embassy Suites Hotel
San Marcos, Texas

Community-Based Programs Training and Technical Assistance Resource List

Office of Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention's "Model Programs Guide"

Contains information about evidence-based juvenile justice and youth prevention, intervention, and reentry programs

<http://www.ojjdp.gov/mpg/>

Office of Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention's "Model Programs iGuides"

Provides an interactive implementation guide for specific programs, outlining each step required to successfully implement a new program.

<http://www.ojjdp.gov/mpg-iguides/>

Justice Research and Statistics Association "Implementing Evidence-Based Practices"

Describes challenges in implementing evidence-based programs and offers research-based strategies to overcome these challenges and facilitate implementation in the community.

http://www.jrsa.org/projects/ebp_briefing_paper2.pdf

Center for Juvenile Justice Reform "Improving the Effectiveness of Juvenile Justice Programs"

A new perspective on evidence-based practices

http://cjr.georgetown.edu/wp-content/uploads/2015/03/ImprovingEffectiveness_December2010.pdf

W.K. Kellogg Foundation "Logic Model Development Guide"

Community-Based Programs Training and Technical Assistance Resource List

Using logic modeling to enhance program planning, implementation, and dissemination activities

<http://www.wkkf.org/resource-directory/resource/2006/02/wk-kellogg-foundation-logic-model-development-guide>

SAMHSA'S National Registry of Evidence-Based Programs and Practices (NREPP)

Provides an avenue for finding interventions reviewed and approved by NREPP; engaging in trainings on selection, adoption, implementation, and evaluation of evidence-based programs; and finding published resources for effective programming.

<http://www.samhsa.gov/nrepp>

University of Wisconsin –Extension Program Development and Evaluation: “Logic Model”

Using logic models for program development and evaluation - includes templates for creating logic models

<http://www.uwex.edu/ces/pdande/evaluation/evallogicmodel.html>

The Council of State Governments “Core Principles for Reducing Recidivism and Improving Outcomes for Youth in the Juvenile Justice System”

Offers policy and practice recommendations to support successful reentry for system-involved youth and help these youth successfully transition to a crime-free, productive adulthood

<http://csgjusticecenter.org/jc/publications/>

The Council of State Governments “Measuring and Using Juvenile Recidivism Data to Inform Policy, Practice, and Resource Allocation”

Highlights the findings of a survey of juvenile correctional agencies in all 50 states, providing 5 recommendations for state and local policymakers to improve their measurement, analysis, collection, reporting, and use of recidivism data on system-involved youth

<http://csgjusticecenter.org/jc/publications/>

Community-Based Programs Training and Technical Assistance Resource List

SAGE Journals Criminal Justice and Behavior “The Relationship Between Matching Service to Criminogenic Need and Recidivism in Male and Female Youth”

Research supporting rehabilitative programming that recognizes youth’s level of risk to reoffend and addresses their criminogenic needs and responsivity factors. Website offers numerous links to studies on risk and needs assessments

<http://cjb.sagepub.com/content/39/8/1025.full>

U.S Department of Justice National Institute of Corrections “Annotated Bibliography: Juvenile Justice Risk/Need Assessment and Juvenile Justice Websites”

One stop resource that explains issues surrounding the use of risk/needs assessments for juvenile offenders

<https://s3.amazonaws.com/static.nicic.gov/Library/027615.pdf>

Positive Youth Justice: Framing Justice Interventions Using the Concepts of Positive Youth Development

Provides an overview of the Positive Youth Development and Positive Youth Justice Model, which focus on positive youth outcomes (e.g. job attainment) for addressing youth in the juvenile justice system.

<http://citeseerx.ist.psu.edu/viewdoc/download;jsessionid=313A25CE93654120253326D9B9BBBCE8?doi=10.1.1.610.8464&rep=rep1&type=pdf>

Youth.gov

Provides interactive tools and other resources to help youth-serving organizations and community partnerships plan, implement, and participate in effective programs for youth. The site provides an interactive map to find programs within your community.

<http://youth.gov/about-us>