

JJAEP Conference 2020

Part 1: JJAEP Business

June 24, 2020

Marie Welsch, PhD, LPC

Alawan (Alli) Thomas, MEd

Texas Juvenile Justice Department

Today, Please share in chat box:

What have you learned that works with the provision of remote learning?

Agenda

- Alli introduction
- End of Year Wrap-up
- Data: Numbers for this year
- Share JJAEP Report with your school districts, ESCs, and juvenile boards
- Funding information

Agenda

- Program Review Visits in 2020-2021 school year & standards
- Questions I have received: Home School, GED certifications
- 2020-2021 School Year: School Day and Early Release Waivers, calendar issues; PPE;
- Reminder about upcoming JJAEP webinars

Mandatory Student Attendance Days, Entries and Exits as of 6/23/2020

	Attendance days	Entries	Exits
August	carry over	699
August	5641	213	214
September	11809	160	83
October	13747	197	182
November	9750	146	201
December	8593	116	128
January	9929	169	152
February	11155	175	131
March w/COVID closed days	7149	77	84
April almost all school days	10966	22	99
May	8596	9	117
June (4 of 5 locations)	262	0	4
Totals:	97597	1983	1395

TEA Funding plan, waiting for approval or not:

Available funds if funding cuts are approved: 5,805,000

Proposed funding for JJAEP
2021-22

0.043

Percent for discretionary programs

5,555,000

Available for reimbursement

92,583

Payable days at @$60

101,000

Payable days at @55

111,100

Payable days at @50

Email from (TX Assoc. of School Boards) TASB June 6-24-2020

Commissioner of Education Mike Morath announced Tuesday the release of guidance on how attendance and enrollment will be calculated next year for two remote instruction options: synchronous remote instruction and asynchronous remote instruction. Synchronous instruction requires all participants to be virtually present at the same time, while asynchronous instruction does not require all students to be present at the same time. [Read the FAQ for more detailed information. \[t.e2ma.net\]](#) TEA also provided a [guide to preparing for remote instruction. \[t.e2ma.net\]](#)

Thanks so much for sharing this time with us!

Marie Welsch, PhD, LPC

Marie.Welsch@tjtd.texas.gov

Alli, Alawan Thomas

Alawan.Thomas@tjtd.texas.gov