SECTION 1

The person who is the subject of this review was previously reviewed and it was determined that certification should be denied based on the person's criminal history. The person timely submitted an appeal, as allowed by law and TJJD rule. The additional information provided is as follows:

SECTION 2

Consider the following and make a recommendation in Section 3 as to whether or not certification should be denied based on the criminal history:

- the extent and nature of past criminal activity;
- the age of the person when each crime was committed;
- how much time has passed since the person's last criminal activity;
- the conduct and work activity of the person before and after the criminal activity;
- evidence of the person's rehabilitation and rehabilitative effort while incarcerated or after release;
- evidence of the person's compliance with any conditions of probation, community supervision, parole, or mandatory supervision; and
- any other evidence of the person's fitness to perform the duties of the position requiring certification, including any letters of recommendation.

SECTION 3

Having considered the additional information, we make the following recommendation (select one):

Certification should be denied based on a consideration of the factors in Section 2.

Certification should not be denied based on a consideration of the factors in Section 2.
