(a) Standard.

The State Volunteer Resource Council for Texas Youth (SVRC) is a nonprofit corporation established to support and sustain the network of affiliated community resource councils that provide resources to Texas Juvenile Justice Department (TJJD) youth. The SVRC members consist of officers and delegates from local councils. The SVRC aids in communication between local community councils and the executive/administrative staff of TJJD, promotes volunteer services and fund raising for local needs and programs, and promotes the establishment of local community resource councils in communities where TJJD programs exist.

(b) Procedures.

(1) The manager of volunteer services:

- (A) establishes and sustains the SVRC consistent with VLS.05.01;
- (B) provides support and assistance to the SVRC in soliciting donations, preparing reports, and carrying out business objectives; and
- (C) notifies the SVRC treasurer regularly of the donations received.

(2) The SVRC:

- (A) meets at least two times each year;
 - (B) complies with all fiscal responsibilities as outlined in VLS.05.01;
 - (C) maintains a bank account to support state council activities;
 - (D) makes financial transactions in accordance with the Texas Business Organizations Code; and
 - (E) co-sponsors the annual statewide volunteer conference in partnership with TJJD.
